

Friends,

It's with a grateful heart for the opportunity to have served so many wonderful families at the Coop these last 9 & 1/2 years to share that our time at our Winter Park home is coming to an end on Sunday, July 16th. A testament to the vibrancy of the Winter Park market, current market rates are unfortunately well beyond what our little business can justify in renewing the lease.

It's been an honor to have shared a glimpse of the food and warm home environment that I grew up in. The Coop brand will continue in the many venues it's currently served throughout Orlando; who knows, perhaps God will lead us to other restaurant locations in the future.

For now, please know how incredibly grateful we are for the years of support and love we've felt at the Coop. The joy from so many young children, families, and grandparents has made the Coop the special place it was and will always be in our hearts.

With a grateful heart, we bid farewell to our beloved Coop.

Blessings,

John and the entire 4R Family
